It is also reported that the Eighteenth Army Corps lost 17,000 officers and men in storming the village and fortress of Vaux. This corps never participated in the fighting for the village or the fortress of Vaux.

"The French calculate the German losses at the round figure of 200,000. The German casualties happily have not been in proportion to the importance of the German gains. Besides, among the casualties is a great percentage of men who were only slightly wounded.

"The number of prisoners taken by the French is insignificant, as the only soldiers captured by them were some too bold that advanced far beyond their goal.

"As the French are steadily retreating they must, of course, give imaginary figures. The Germans, on the other hand, have for seven weeks been burying dead Frenchmen on the battlefield and rescuing French wounded, so they are able to compute figures regarding the French losses, which are calculated to have reached 150,000, or four army corps."

Indeed, some of his cavairymen are reported to have gone so far south as to cause some anxiety on the part of the administration in Washington, especially in view of the latest developments of Carranza requesting the withdrawal of American troops and the clash between American soldiers and a mob of native Mexicans at Parral.

COMMENT ON THE SITUATION.

Before Verdun the infantry has remained inactive, and only in the sectors to the northwest, embracing Hill No. 304 and the front from Le Mort Homme to Cumleres has there been heavy work by the artillery. Berlin reports that unfavorable weather is hindering artillery operations. The Germans in the Lake Narocs and Ikskull bridgehead positions on the Russian front have made attempts to advance against the Russians after preparatory bombardments. In each instance, according to Petrograd, they were repulsed. Near Baranovichi the Russian infantry essayed an attack on the Germans, but was driven back. On the Austro-Italian line the usual bombardments and infantry attacks at various points continue. In Asiatic Turkey the Turks have delivered powerful counter-attacks in the Caucasus region against important positions recently captured from them by the Russians. Their attempts falled, according to Petrograd. Five additional vessels have met with disaster as a result of mines or submarines. COMMENT ON THE SITUATION.

This latter statement is in direct contradiction to the dispatches of Carranza troops attempted to hold back the Mexican mobs. A report to the State Department from Consul Letcher at Chinuahua, forwarded through Gen. Funston, said there had been some "trouble" at Parral when the American column was fired upon by Mexican civilians.

The State and War departments, receiving from the Mexican Embassy their first information that the clash had been a serious one, at once sent out orders for a full report. It had not been received tonight.

In substance, however, the texts are the same and present the argument that American troops should be withdrawn from Mexica as they had been sent on a misunderstanding by the State Department of the attitude of the de factor government.

DOUBTE PERSHING'S SUCCESS.

There is one marked difference. In effing reasons for the proposal for the withdrawal of the American troops, the official text shows this language:

"And because this expedition is not fulfilling its object and undoubtedly cannot do so, because the band headed by Villa already has been dispersed.

The unofficial text says the expedition. The unofficial text says the expedition "has fulfilled its object insofar as it will be able to do so.—

PARRAL EPISODE.

The situation at Parral was unexpected. If official reports from Gen. Pershing bear out the Mexican advices, it seems likely that the conduct of the officer in command of the troops will be subjected to close scrutiny. Parral is described as lying at the base of a rugged mountain, on the bank of a river, and flanking the stage road. It is thought possible by some officers that the commander of the American for the said force that the Americans of the said force that the American force left our clipt.

The commander of the Americans of the said was made by the Mexican officials was taken as proof that no attempt at occupation of the place was intended.

Collector Cobb at El Paso telegraphed the State Department tenight that news of the fighting at Parral had caused considerable uneasiness there and elsewhere along the border but without demonstrations from the large Mexican population at El Paso. Some excitement followed an attempt by El Paso officers to extradite a Mexican charged with conspiracy to Juarez, but Collector Cobb prevailed upon the city officials to defer action.

For this reason the machine gun platoon was unable to get under action at this reason the machine gun plateon was unable to get under action at very close range. From a hill these guns swept an area about 2000 yards wide and 2000 yards deep. Observers with the guns saw horses in the distance lying prone where the guns had sprayed their fire. The machine guns also followed the retreating bandits, but on account of their long march had difficulty in keeping up with the fresh horses of the Villistas.

BACON SHORTAGE

A cavalry officer who has been out riding the trails of Villistas, returning today, had not tasted bacon in fifteen days. His troops did not meet any of the bandits but participated in many long chases which helped to run the Mexicans into contact with other American forces.

"My most prized article of baggags," the officer said, "was an old sock. When I had coffee, I kept it in this sock. When I had tobacco and no coffee, I turned the sock the other side out and filled it with tobacco. One side for each, but not enough of either to keep even one side working all the time.

"Yesterday I obtained some matches, took them while the other fellow wasn't looking because I knew he could not need them half as much as we did out on the trail."

His men and himself, said this officer, had worn out much of their clothing, according to ordinary standards of wear, in their hard rides. They, like thousands of other cavairymen, were patching their shoes with the extra leather from their stirrups, which made excellent sole leather, but for which good thread was almost impossible to obtain,

"This is the only suit of clothes I have along," the officer said, "and I were out the seat of my trousers a week ago. So I made a new seat out of my shelter half," he was asked, "what is that?"

"That," he replied, "is half of my."

"That," he replied, "is half of my shelter tent. Two men occupy one tent, and each carry half, called his shelter half."

This development and the reappearance of Charles Morrison of Chicago in connection with the case strengthened the belief in some quarters that the department had not finished its investigation and gave rise to the report that department officials had requested Mr. Morrison to look into the gasoline situation with a view to further prosecutions. Mr. Morrison is thoroughly familiar with the Standard Oil litigation and aided the department in the prosecution of the dissolution suit.

It is understood department officials are in doubt as to whether prosecutions under the present law could be successfully carried out in view of the dissolution decree. What is regarded as a fundamental defect in the decree is the provision which permitted the original owners of the oil trust to retain ownership of the various companies into which the combine was split. New legislation to correct this situation may be sought.

When asked if he thought the United States had an adequate force in case "unpleasantness" should follow devision to the correct this situation may be sought.

Whether the dissolution decree has prevented the so-called Standard Oil subsidiaries from districting the United States among themselves, thereby avoiding competition with one another, likewise has been investigated. The investigation is said to disclose that there is no real competition today among the various companies that went to make up the oil trust. The question that has arisen in this connection lately is whether the decree permits this state of affairs.

In the habit of drinking glass of hot water before breakfast.

We're not here long, so let's make our stay agreeable. Let us live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well and look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet, how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether alling, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast, While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexious are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of inside bathing before breakfast.

They're fine! Cascarets liven your liver, clean your thirty feet of bowels and sweeten your breath. You eat one or two, like candy, before going to bed and in the morning your head is clear, tongue is clean, stomach sweet and breath right. Get a box from your druggist and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Cascarets stop sick headache, biliousness, indigestion, bad breath and constipation.

GERMANY GETS READY

SEATTLE (Wash.) April 18.—Investigating lumber conditions preparatory to getting ready to handle the tremendous movement of freight to Europe immediately upon the conclusion of the war, C. W. Wehrhahn of Hamburg, a director of the Kosmos line, left Seattle today, after two days spent here, for Everett, Wash., a large lumber and shingle export town thirty miles north of here.

Mr. Wherhahn has spent considerable time on the west coast of South America, where a large fleet of German vessels both stam and sail, are neterned. His mission to the north has confessed complicity in the crime, according to a statement made today by Chief of Police Briare.

Miller has admitted, says Briare, that he, Holman and Mrs. Chambers to death on Main street on the evening of February 5, and then threw his body into Mormon channel.

No reference was made to the alleged confession in court today and it was intimated that Miller had refused to tell his story on the witness stand.

The chief witness today for the prosecution was Walter Stemmer. He related conversations he had with Holman in which he was told that the latter did not care if he lost his job with the transfer company, as he had "won a home." and if everything turned out right he would soon be settled on Mrs. Chambers's rainch in the central part of the State.

SACRAMENTO, April 12.—With the shipment today of the first car of chrome ore by the Amador Central Railroad from a point about five miles from Ione, Amador county will begin reaping the benefits of one of the warmade industries.

The ore comes from the recently-developed mine of Bowers, Swanson and Case, which has been opened up since the steel smelters began looking about in America for the rarer minerals used in making steel, the supply of which had been cut off.

The car, which is the first of a series of shipments, goes to Hays, Allegheny county, Pennsylvania.

SALEM (Or.) April 13.—Owing to the presence of a Jersey cow, locked and heavily chained to a pillar of the chapel rostrum, devotional exercises were dispensed at Willamette University, a Methodist institution of higher learning, this morning for the first time in many years.

How the cow mounted the long flight of steps at the entrance to the chapel is a mystery.

Although the prank is supposed to have been performed by students who resented a recent ediet that all must attend chapel daily, no evidence of the guilty ones has been found. THE ROMANCE OF ACHIEVEMENT

The days of the ever-new romance of the Poor Boy —with the Will to Win—are not over. The telegraph operator of yesterday is the Edison or Earling of today. Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, Charles M. Schwab, almost all of our great captains of industry, started at the very bottom of the ladder. They climbed to the top because they gained the HABIT of OVER-COMING. They did not win because they had no college education or early advantages, but in spite of this.

peering through his periscope. It is considered that the slight variations in the two sides of the case virtually could be reconciled. SUSSEX CASE IS STRONG.

Following the receipt recently of press dispatches announcing that the German government flatly denied responsibility for the explosion which destroyed the Sussex, it is believed the case the United States was preparing against German submarine warfare would have to be based upon the accumulation of illegal attacks rather than largely upon the disaster to the channel steamer. It now being revealed upon the work to the channel steamer.

Additional affidavits and information in regard to the Sussex incident are expected to arrive on the liner St. Paul due in New York tomorrow. It is hoped the documents may be received in time for consideration by the Cabinet. Tonight it seemed doubtful, however, that it would be possible to get them to Washington before late in the day, if then.

When the matter coming on the St.

Paul is before the State Department it will be in a position to take up in order the cases of the five ships mentioned in the German note and to meet the arguments and contentions set forth. The accumulation of evidence relating to the Sussex will be closely compared with the information contained in the German note so that an orderly case, difficult to dispute, may be formulated.

Chairman Stone of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations was in communication with administration officials during the day and he probably will confer with Fresident Wilson or Secretary Lansing, or both, tomor-officient first footage in distinct the secretary Lansing, or both, tomor-officient, and position to Obtained.

If a big emergency should arise and the United States be confronted with the necessity of moving a large body of men and their equipment and supplies in a great hurry, the railroads of the country would prove inadequate. The present army could be moved to any border speedily but if 1,000,000 men had to be rushed to any one part of the country the transportation facilities would be found decidedly lacking.

These are the views of W. J. Black, passenger traffic manager of the Santa Fe with headquarters at Chicago, who arrived at the Alexandria yesterday.

"As far as moving 100,000 men at a time goes, that could be easily done and the equipment could be forumed for 100,000 men, and so on," asid Mr. Black. without eruptions or pimples showing on their faces.

These may be due to indirection resulting from improper diet. If so they will quickly disappear when the proper food is adhered to. If they are accompanied by pallor and listlesmess you must look to the condition of the blood.

Because these eruptions on the faces of school girls are so common they seldous receive the attention from parents that they require. When they indicate thin blood or anemia there is a ready remedy in Dr. Williams 'Fink Fills. These tonip pills, free from harmful drugs, are pretty sure to help growing girls because they build up the blood at a time when the demand on it is greatest. As the bloods made rich and red, fickle appetites become normal, lassitude gives way twigor, the cheeks and lips show the glow of health and the whole system is tone up. The nervous system is invigorated and with proper attention to diet many dangers are averted.

Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams Pink Fills or they will be mailed, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per hox, six boxes $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co. Schenectady, N. Y. The pamphlet, "Building Up the Blood," is free on request.

Five-cent Fare to Vermont and Homeward-avenue District by Showing Present Losses on Local Traffic.

With the Vermont avenue and Homeward avenue 5-cent cases against the Los Angeles Railway un-der advisement, Commissioner Frank R. Deviin of the State Railroad Com-R. Devlin of the State Railroad Com-mission will probably finish today the taking of testimony in the Pacific Electric 5-cent-fare cases, so far as the city's evidence is concerned. It is probable that an adjournment will then be taken for two or three weeks to permit the Pacific Electric to pre-pare its answer to the city's conten-

In the Pacific Electric's case yesterday morning Attorney Frank Karr for the company cross-examined David Armer, assistant engineer of the Board of Public Utilities. Karr brought out in cross-examination that the Pacific Electric is an interurban road and its local business inside the city is merely a side issue.

Armer was questioned in regard to the construction of the lines, its block signal system, its handling of mail, freight and express, with the evident intention of showing that the line is operated as a railroad and not as a street car service.

During the afternoon session, when the Los Angeles Railway case was up, Attorney S. M. Haskins put George Kuhrts, chief engineer, and E. L. Lewis, superintendent of the company, on the stand to testify that the Vermont avenue and Homeward-avenue line is not now paying expenses, even under a 10-cent fare, and with commutation thirty-ride books at $1.50. These witnesses testified that a reduction of fare would cause an additional deficit in the operation of the line.

the arrest of Fred Brown, 27 years old, by Police Lieutenant Johnson. The loser of the race is held on suspicion of attempted burglary.

He is accused of being the man who tried to enter the residence of H. M. Hain, No. 1226 East Twenty-seventh street, awakening Mr. Hain. He saw the figure of a man, whom he identified as Brown, silhouetted against a light. Clad in pajamas Mr. Hain slipped out by the front door and ran around the house. The prower fied, leaping the back fence. Mr. Hain went after him, along an alley and over another fence, shouting for the fugitive to stop.

The noise awakened C. C. Barnes, No. 1338 East Twenty-seventh street. Although in pajamas also, he rushed out and joined Mr. Hain in the chase. Brown was gaining when Frank H. Trimble, No. 216 West Third street, passed in an automobile. Messrs.

heard from Capt. Stefansson was received when Capt. Louis Lane of Seattle, who is to command Mr. Borden's boat, met him at Norway Island off the mouth of the Mackensie River.

"That was last September," said Mr. Borden, "on which occasion he bought from Capt. Lane the Polar Bear and all the supplies in her. Lane came out overland. Our boat, the Great Bear, is nearly completed. We expect to sail from Seattle in May and to be away until November. Five friends are going with me, namely, Norris Bokum, Rochester Slaughter and C. K. Knitckerbocker of Chicago, Reginald Fernand of Santa Barbara and W. E. Boeing of Seattle."

Asked whether he would bring Capt. Stefansson back with him, Mr. Borden replied: "I am not sure whether Stefansson is coming back or not this year. He discovered some new land up there last year and he was going to explore it this last winter and find out whether it was this undiscovered continent which they say exists. He had not determined then whether it was a continent or a group of islands. He has put in an application to the Canadian government, which is financing his expedition, to let him stay another year, but on account of the war there seems to be some doubt whether the Dominion will put up the money. We expect to see him up there."

Mr. Borden said this would be his first trip to the Arctic. His previous voyage in North Pacific waters was up in Alaska. In a 100-foot schooner yacht called the Adventurer, he went as far north as the upper Bering Sea. His new boat, the Great Bear, is a three-masted schooner 150 feet long. As auxiliary power it will carry a Diesel engine. On board, in addition to Mr. Borden and his five friends, will be a crew of twenty-six men together with a motion-picture operator, who will take a film record of the voyage.

The meeting of Mr. Borden and his first right of the Arctic of the work with Carty Stefanson with be gether with a motion-picture operator, who will take a film record of the voyage.

The meeting of Mr. Borden and his friends with Capt. Stefansson can be expected to be seen on the screen next winter. The commander of the Canadian expedition is looking for the Borden party to meet him this fall carrying the instructions of the Ottawa government as to the continuance or discontinuance of the Canadian expedition which salled from Victoria, B. C., in June, 1912.

Mr. and Mrs. Borden do not expect to make a long stay in Los Angeles. It is Mr. Borden's hope that the expedition may leave Seattle about May 15. Mrs. Borden will not accompany the party to the frozen wastes of the north.

women, who will assist her in the work this year.

The idea of distributing Easter gifts, including colored eggs and nests containing small chicks or rabbits, was originated by Mrs. Sunde nine years ago, while she was visiting the Children's Hospital. The following year she decided to enlarge the scope of her work and the movement expanded rapidly.

Eggs came from hundreds of sources until it became necessary to asks for assistants to aid in distributing the gifts among the little folk in the hospitals and some of the poor sections of the city. Persons interested in the movement donated the use of their automobiles last Easter Sunday and the Municipal Charities Commission gave its official indorsement to the work.

"I shall be glad to receive eggs for distribution at my residence, No. 746 Heliotrope drive," Mrs. Sunde said yesterday. "We have been given splendid encouragement from many sources this month and we expect to handle more gifts than in any previous years. The work of boiling and coloring the eggs will begin next Wednesday. We also are making hundreds of pretty nests for the children."

Coil Eddy came to Los Angeles in 1895, and was active here in many affairs. He was the builder of the Angel's Flight Railroad, in 1901. During his residence here he served as vice-president of the Los Angeles Orthopedic Hospital, and was a member of the Chamber of Commerce. Four years ago he sold his interests in the Angel's Flight Railroad to the Continental Securities Company and retired from active business. He removed to Eagle Rock, where he built a beautiful home on Colorado boulevard and Eddy avenue, which latter street was named in his honor. Here he lived with his grand daughter, Mrs. Purle Gillette Hensel, since the death of his wife in 1914. He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Carrie Eddy Sheffler, who resides in Eagle Rock, and by one grandson, S. Eddy Gillette of Las Vegas, Nev.

He was one of the organizers of the Eagle Rock Chamber of Commerce, having served as its vice-president, and was always active in civic affairs. He was a director of the Eagle Rock Rank. In politics he was a consistent Republican, and his church affiliations were with the Congregational Church. Col. Eddy leaves a comfortable fortune, mostly the result of his sale of holdings in the Angel's Flight Railway Company.

Mrs. Morse, War Nurse, Tells of Needs of Children.

Must Equip New Generation to Govern Country.

American Girls' Aid Provided for Many Needy.

Mrs. Josephine Morss, daughter American Consul-General to Samuel E. Morss, gave an ilating talk last night at the rly Hills Hotel on conditions in ce due to the war. Mrs. Morss France due to the war. Mrs. Morss was living in Paris at the time the war began, and, like many other American women, went into service. She was connected with the American ambulance at Neulily during the first months of the war, when little professional help was at hand and the volunteer nurses did everything from scrubbing to caring for the seriously wounded. After many trained workers had gone over from the United States to aid in the hospital work Mrs. Morss was one of those who took up the task of travelling on canteen trains, and in this way she was brought close to the front. Two women would go out in a box car equipped for their occupancy and fitted for the preparation of light food. The cars were attached to the sanitary trains going out for the wounded, and the canteen trains, as these cars were called, would be dropped at a siding where the women would remain, supplying food to the wounded soldlers who were on their way from the front line trenches to the hospital. In this way, Mrs. Morss shows, many lives have been saved. The canteen trains were the idea of Mme. Berthoulat, wife of the editor of La Liberte, who saw that many soldiers were dying before they reached the hospitals for lack of nourishment. Mrs. Morss emphasized the fact that the same service was supplied to the German prisoners who came from the

ESTABLISH COLONIES.

Among the many interesting pictures used by Mrs. Morss to illustrate her talk were views of the children now being cared for in colonies by the American Girls' Aid, which Mrs. Morss represents. This organization, the speaker explained, has worked out a plan by which 3000 children are already receiving the best of care. From ten to a dozen children are placed in a family under a war widow. The boys are taught trades by disabled soldiers, and the girls domestic science. In many of the colonies the American out-of-door school system is being employed, as the children are in such poor physical condition they need all the pure air available. Fathetic in the extreme were many of the pictures of these the country," as Mrs. Morss puts it. Children from Alsace and Lorraine were shown having their first lessons in French, while other subjects were not so happy, the little faces showing the effects of the horrors which had been all too real to them.

N o GERMANS ADMITTED.

The members of the Associated Chambers of Commerce in London are not laying the foundations for excessively cordial relations to succeed the war. They resolved at a recent session: 'That for a period after the war subjects of countries now at war with the allies should be prevented from taking up employment or a domicile in Great Britain without special license and that the government should declare a moratorium with regard to debts due Germans or Austrians.' Meaning thereby that if an Englishman owes a German there should be no indecent haste expected in discharging the debt,

S CARRANZA JUGGLING!

Is CARRANZA JUGGLING?

During the past twenty-four hours conflicting rumors have been coming from Mexico, from Washington and from sources both in and out of the United States along the border—briefly, that Carranzistas have fired on our troops, that Carranzistas have fired on our troops, that Carranzistas have fired on our troops, that Carranzi in language somewhat ominous has requested the administration promptly to withdraw American troops from Mexico, and that President Wilson has declined to do so. There are other reports to the effect that this foreboding situation is greatly misunderstood and exaggerated. Trustworthy information on the subject may not be at hand for several days; but there seems at present no readays; but there seems at present no reason to be alarmed, though relations may appear somewhat strained.

When Carranza sends requests thinly veiled as orders for the removal of our troops, he has undoubtedly been forced into it by pressure from advisers round about him. The presence of our troops is hurtful to Mexican pride; and Carranza, to save his face, may be required to protest perfunctorily from time to time.

test perfunctorily from time to time.

But that he personally has any objections to our troops is contrary to the view entertained by those who best know the situation. In the first place, the American soldiers are altruistically engaged in wiping out bandit forces that Carranza has been futilely fighting for months. The death of Villa and dispersoment of the Villistas will be a service no less valuable to the de facto government than to the American residents along the border.

Moreover, the Carrangistas and American

Moreover, the Carranzistas and American troops have been co-operating agreeably, and if this is true that a few soldiers ably, and if this is true that a few soldiers wearing the uniform of Carranas have fired on our troops without hitting any-body, the Mexican President is in no way obligated to support and unhold the treacherous insubordination. That isolated attacks from drunken Mexican soldiers have not come before has been remarkable and unexpected. There is no reason for the United States to get alarmed over them.

President Wilson has wisely declined to withdraw our troops until their work is done. That is the sort of spirit Americans like to see—especially in a President who has not been conspicuous for his firmness. Our troops did not go into Mexico until after every peaceful means of securing order and security along the border had been exhausted, until Carransa had failed utterly over a long period of time to protect either his own or our citizens from the cut-throats gathered around Villa, until a large band of Villistas had entered American territory; burned an American town and fought with American soldiers. Very properly our troops went American town and fought with American soldiers. Very property our troops went in pursuit of the murderers. If Carrants wants those troops to withdraw he can speedily secure that withdrawal by having his own soldiers eatch Villa and exterminate the Villistas. When that is done, our expedition will no longer have reason for remaining in his territory and will gladly leave. He would find that far easier and less expensive than trying to drive the expedition out.

Now President Carranza thoroughly see war with the United States, as he would have absolutely nothing to gain and everything to lose. Americans must not forget that he is in an intricate predicament, and we should not become offended if to satisfy the fervor of his people he quibbles and blusters. That sort of thing is a part of the diplomatic and political play every candidate for honors in Mexico—and in many other countries—must make to secure the faith and admiration of his followers. So long as Carranza is merely playing politics at home we need not be at all disturbed. But should he go further and force the United States to regard him as an enemy—well, he would soon find more than a punitive expedition doing business on his side of the border; and when our army did finally retire there would be in the Presidential chair of Mex-

EXCUSES FOR WAR.
In all ages and under all forms government men have sought and ob-tained distinction not merely by their mental powers or their moral excellence or the achievements of their ancestors but the performance of great deeds of carnage and destruction. Blood inherited or blood shed is a valid claim to renown "He who has sacked a city," says the his-torian Abbott, "stands very high in the estimation of his followers. He yields precedence only to him whose grandfather sacked one."

Abbott was a good deal previous in h Abbott was a good deal previous in his comments when he said "the age of military murder and robbery and of the glory of great deeds of carnage and blood is passing away, and that, of peace, of industry, and of achievements for promoting the comfort and happiness of mankind is coming."

It does not look that way at present. At Verdun thousands of men have been fighting and suffering and dying for nearly two months in a continuous night and

The monarchs of antiquity knew what they wanted and why they wanted it, and they did not hesitate to tell. Cyrus captured Babylon because he needed Babylon in his business. Darius invaded and attempted to conquer Greece because he thought he had the power to do so, but was distilusioned at Marathon. Xerxes resumed the enterprise which Darius had been compelled to abandon, saying, "It is the manifest destiny of Persia to rule been compelled to abandon, saying, "It is the manifest destiny of Persia to rule the world. Cyrus, Darius and Cambyses my renowned predecessors, have subdued Asia and Africa; Europe remains. It de-volves on me to finish what they have begun."

At the outbreak of the European war Germany had stored in her warehouses $30,000,000 worth of nitrate of soda and in less than four months this supply was north of Italy, Switzerland, France, Ger-many and England. He did this upon in less than four months this supply was various pretexts. There were standing topics of controversy and unsettled disexhausted. Germany has now eight cya-

At present we are largely dependent When first a fellow gets a car, he navigates it slowly; "base fiends," he says, "those speeders are—their course is most unholy." There'll be no reckless speed for him; such stuff annoys him greatly; he will not scorch or scoot or skim, but jog along sedately. "Oh, safety is the proper stuff," he says, when feeling chatty; "twelve miles an hour is fast enough for any man not batty. The accidents of which we read are caused by silly duffers who have to hit abnormal speed, and many a victim suffers." But when he's had his car nine weeks, he sends it forth a-humming, and every country village shricks when it beholds him coming. "To crawl along," he says, "is worse than walking is, dod-gast me! I don't propose that every hearse shall go a-whizzing past me!" And so he scorches, in his glee, and then, some balmy morning, he winds his car around a tree, and furnishes a warning.

[Tit-Bits:] British Columbia holds the record for sending more men to the allied armies than any other division of the empire of Great Britain. In one month 1200 men came up the Fraser River from points on the Cariboo trail to John the regiment there. Wallachin, a town on the trail, sent 47 men to the front out of 67 eligible citizens of the town. Vancouver sent 10,000 men out of its population of 110,000. Prince Rupert went over this ratio. Every settlement in British Columbia has its soldier in the ranks.

Chinese situation. Strangely enough none of such writers have essayed to define the meaning of the "open door." Unsympathetic crities usually utilize this diplomatic catch phrase to censure every move that Japan makes in China. Beclouded by indiscriminate writings, the popular idea of the "open door" has become anything but true.

When American writers advocate the open door in China, they usually refer to the late Mr. Secretary John Hay as the originator of the principle, but fall to tell us just what that illustricus Secretary of State meant by the open door. The exact definition of that celebrated doctrine is contained in the notes which Mr. Hay addressed to England, Germany, France, Italy, Russia and Japan in the fall of 1899, and is couched in the following terms:

First.—That no power will in any way interfere with any treaty port or vested interest within any so-called "sphere of influence or interest" or leased territory it may have in Chins.

Becond—That the Chinese treaty tariff of the time being shall apply to all merchandise landed or shipped to all such ports as are within said sphere of influence (unless they be free ports.) no matter to what nationality it may belong, and that duties leviable shall be collected by the Chinese government.

Third—That no power shall levy any higher harbor dues on vessels of another nationality frequenting any port in such sphere than shall be levied on vessels of its own nationality, or any higher railroad charges over lines built, controlled, or operated within its sphere on merchandise belonging to citizens or subjects of other nationalities transported over equal distances.

This is the meaning of the open door. It does not challenge the establishment of the controlled on the stablishment of

This is the meaning of the open door. It does not challenge the establishment of spheres of influence, but simply proposes to forestall the adoption in such regions of discriminatory measures prejudicial to the commercial interests of countries other than the power establishing such spheres of influence.

Viewed in the light of the above definition I fail to see why our American friends should feel constrained to make so much ado about Japan's activities in China. Japan has not violated the principles of the "open door," if the "open door" means what it really means. It is unjust and unmanly to twist the meaning of and impute motives into every thing Japan does on the Asian continent.

HELL BENT FOR EXCITEMENT.

BY HARRY BOWLING.

What are people most interested in? That will always be the biggest question before the world. Those who cater to the public, politically, socially, commercially or religiously, must have a clear understanding as to what best holds the public attention.

standing as to what best holds the public attention.

If we judge by the evidence of figures—and figures, you know, are said not to lie—the most abiding interest today among Americans generally is the pursuit of pleasure. If pleasure interferes with religious aspirations or the social conscience, well, as a rule it isn't the pleasure we cut out. This seems to be established by the evidence of figures.

By the same showing we must conclude, then, that the pursuit of pain has become the main consideration with as large a number of people in Europe. Yet it is preposterous to suppose that the people in Europe like pain for its own sake. May we not be premature, also, in concluding that the people of America love pleasure for itself alone?

Both America and Europe are populated with twentleth-century men and women. Whether we apparently court pleasure or court pain the incentive is the same in Paris or in Los Angeles. Were world conditions reversed, our Angelenos would be found arisinty hattalloned in reaking ditions reversed, our Angelenos would be found grimly battalioned in reeking trenches or lined up behind monster shell-belching mortars while the light-hearted Frenchman was reading his sporting sheet, discussing his motor races or gurgling over the latest novelty in the newest Paris over the latest novelty in the newest Paris cafe.

Human nature is much the same in the imperialist or the republican. We see on the one hand the accumulated results of long years of industry blown into smoke from the guns of hostile armies and on the other the hard-carned day wages of the individual blown in for a race or theater ticket or an hour in a cabaret. We see on one continent government money with individual blown in for a race or theater ticket or an hour in a cabaret. We see on one continent government money with the consent of the people spent in the bulk to support wives whose husbands are needed for war and on another private money spent lavishly in small sums op maldens whose sweethearts desire them for wives. The spirit of the age is the same aithough in the two hemispheres it has been so differently manifested.

Without being a materialist one can judge fairly accurately by the manner in which the public spends its money on what object the public heart is set. On one form of pleasure alone—the moving picture—America spends $500,000,000 a year. Great Britain on one form of pain alone—the prosecution of war—spends $1,000,000 an hour. And, paradoxical as it may appear, both countries are in these expenditures moved by the same impulse. The man who buys a ticket for a Corona speed contest or the one who volunteers for a flesh-and-blood contest are both answering the same call that 90 per cent. of all people feel stirring within them at some time or other—the urge of change, novelty, the cry for something different, a surcease from monotony.

some time or other—the urge of change, novelty, the cry for something different, a surcease from monotony.

Why under the spur of excitement do we pursue either pain or pleasure with equal zest? We want to be taken out of ourselves—before death comes along and does it for us.

As the party had been imbibing a little too freely, one of the three had to be assisted up the decline. When, thinking him safe at the top, his friends turned him loose, he fell to the bottom. He lay very still, and the other two, supposing him severely injured, rushed down to him. As they leaned over to discover his condition, the fallen one exclaimed:

Hahn Defeats McCormack in Steady Tennis.

NORDHOFF, April 13.—More than ighty-five matches were run off here day in the twenty-first annual Ojai Valley Tennis Tournament, the largest number ever played in a single day in any tournament in the history of California tennis. Starting in at 7 o'clock this morning, and continuing without intermission clear through till dark, every one of Nordhoff's eighteen tennis courts was in use and several of the events went clear through to the final round on the opening day. EXCITEMENT.

EXCITEMENT.

The first day's play furnished several exciting matches for the edification of the large crowd of spectators. Possibly the feature match of the day was the one played between Mrs. Williams and Mary Browne and Florence Sutton and Mrs. Bruce. The former team holds the women's doubles championship of the United States, and the Browne sisters succeeded in retaining their title by defeating the Sutton sisters, 1-8, 6-0, 6-2. The challengers won the opening set in rathelengers won the opening set in rathelengers won the opening set in rathelengers won the opening to it in rathelengers won the opening set in rathelengers. Some more excitement was fufficient to the set of the champions.

then on it was easy work for the champions.

Some more excitement was fufnished when the Stanford and California teams clashed in the second round for the intercollegiate doubles. Hahn and Barber, the Cardinal net men, succeeded in taking Rogers and Lipman into camp in straight sets, 6-4, 6-4, 6-4 to finish and the Stanford team won because it played on the offensie throughout. Barber won the right to represent Stanford in the Ojlai Tournament by defeating Van Dyke Johns just before leaving Palo Alto, and is playing the best tennis of his career.

HAHN WINS.

Hahn drew McCormack in the opening round of the intercollegiate singles, and defeated him in straight sets, 8-6, 6-0. McCormack played wonderful tennis the first set, but Hahn proved to be far the steadler of the two and finally managed to break through on McCormack's serve for the set. McCormack weakened perceptibly the second set, and the northerner won with comparative ease. Hahn is picked by many to win the open and intercollegiate singles titles.

Some close tennis was also played in the ladies' intercollegiate doubles tournament. Jessie Grieve and Frances Beveridge met their match in Mabel Mansur and Fern Dow of Pomona, and barely succeeded in winning after a three-set match, 10-5, 2-5, 6-4. The Trojan team also put the University of California representatives out of the running in straight ones crooke to the way the man with sets, 6-3, 6-3.

ZEB TERRY HITS AND FIELDS WELL.

> CHICAGO BU-REAU OF THE TIMES, April 13.— Zeb Terry, the Coast boy, touted as a weak hitter before the season opened, was given a great hand this afternoon when a afternoon when a solid drive from his bat drove home the first run of the season for the white Sox. In the second inning with two gone, Ray Schalk hit for two rom second rollers to the pitcher. The Coast recruit played a great game in the field and got a big hand in the sixth inning, when he made a great stop of Cobb's hardbounding drive and tossed the fiest Tyout at first. Twice he forced out a runner at second. He had five chances in the field and played them perfectly. In the third he grabbed a hot grounder at second, grabbing a roller from Bush and forcing Stanage, who had singled.

and it is thought that these two teams will meet in the finals.

BETTER STILL.

Tomorrow's matches are expected to be even more exciting than those of today. The finals of the men's intercollegiate doubles tournament will be played off at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, with Hahn and Barker facing Warren and McCormack. Some close matches are also expected in the college singles, the third round of which will be played tomorrow. Barber, Warren, Lipman, Conley, R. S. Wright, Hahn and Rogers all survived the opening rounds, and will fight it out for the title. The finals will be reached in the interscholastic doubles championships as will the semi-finals in the singles.

May Sutton Bundy is announced for an exhibition match tomorrow afternoon, and will probably appear with one of her sisters in a doubles match against the national champions, Mrs. Williams and Mary Browne. Tom Bundy and McLoughlin will appear Saturday in a doubles match against the strongest team which can be procured for them. These matches together with the regular tournament matches will furnish plenty of excite—

Southern California champion, will not be on the schedule, as no one has been found who would like to fight him. Calls have been made for opponents for Barker, but to no avail. All the local boys are just a little bit careful about sticking their heads into a lion's mouth. The only way out of the difficulty would be to get some foreign fighter to come in and scrap Barker, but time did not permit.

NIFTY FISHING AT REDONDO BEACH.

REDONDO BEACH, April 13. of a jitney bus, was arrested for deviating from his regular route to take passengers to the ball park.

The city ordinance permits the jitneys to carry passengers to a public attraction. The police arrested Duncan to determine in court whether or not the baseball game could be considered a public attraction.

Police Judge White ruled in favor of the national game as a public attraction and the case was dismissed.

The city ordinance permits here and for the past few days many fishermen have brought the shining beauties in. Joe Dorsey, a fisherman, had all he could do yesterday, when he brought in 1500 pounds of green-back mackeral, halibut and other fish. He had to fill every box on the wharf with his catches. He had been out all day with his nets and lines. Today he brought in 1000 pounds and others are delighted with their luck as well. Early this morning, flounders started to bite, as well as halibut, perch, and green-back mackeral. There will be a six-foot tide tonight at 6 o'clock as well as tomorrow night in the fish drift in with the tide and bite well after the tide has gone out. Fish are biting well along the wharves

THE secret of Coach Clendenin and the L. A. High baseball team has been discovered. When the school band is present the Cliffmen win their games; when it is absent they lose. The part the band plays in winning a ball game is mysterious and dark, taking the investigator to the physics and chemistry laboratories, and even to the cafeteria. It involves yards of figures concerning sound waves, undulations of the atmosphere and point of vantage where the sound waves coming from the battery of horns cross the stratum of atmosphere through which the pitcher huris the ball. At a signal from the pitcher the band plays a certain kind of music and a terrific compound curve unwinds itself toward the batter. Some of the throws come as low as the batter's knees and suddenly jump up under his Adam's apple. They are insolvable.

When a particularly hard game is expected the band is fed on only garlic and Spanish tamales. By turning their instruments toward the man batting for the opposing side the musicians often cause him to swoon away and retire from the field. The effect is much the same as that of a German gas bomb.

Such are the strategies indulged in by Coach Clancy Clendenin. The working out of this system entailed deep delvings into the world of science, and as a consequence of their carefully-laid plans the Cliffdwellers hope to pull out ahead and grab the pennant.

OLD ANGEL INFIELDER SIGNS UP WITH OAKS.

Coast League Fans will be Able to See Joe Berger in Action Again - Maier and Patterson on Hunt for New Blood and Allow Shortstop to Get Away-Addition will Strengthen Oaks Infield.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

COAST LEAGUE fans are to see some more of Jos Berger. The Coation debt, which shows signs of an early ambilion to win the pennant, restarday purchased the former Titer and Angel shortstop. The deal which is an outright call, was yesterday completed by Freedont Maler and Freedont Leavitt.

WOULDN'T SION.

Berger was sold to the Wichita cits along with Kans, Rayless and Henley. However, is his sub was conditional on his willingness to sign with that club, he rewrited to the Vernon tannwhere he declined to scribble his signalized to be supposed to the work of the player.

Keen surprise was occasioned here by the failure of Roy Corhan to appear in the line-up of the St. Louis Cardinais in the opening game. In his place was a stranger by the name of Horneby. San Francisco players new here explained the mystery yealerday. Not only was Corhan recenty overcome by a lame arm, but he is nursing a couple of fingers which were crushed during the spring training rip. In St. Louis, Corhan is regarded as almost as much of a sensation as zeb is in Chicago. Horneby, a former fexas Leaguer, is a good player, but will step aside to make room for Cortan later, it is said.

Harry Harper, ex-Angel, arrived here yesterday from Hayden, Ariz, en route to Spokane, where he will finish the season. Harper does not come under the head of a "jumper," as he was a free agent when he went to Arizona, merely going out there to pass the time and make a little money while awaiting a favorable opening.

Frans Hosp, well known here as a former member of the Angels and Tigers, and more recently with Oakland, arrived here yesterday in a good state of preservation. In fact, Frans seldom has looked better than at present. He has several layers of tan on his map, and is trained down as far as it would be safe. He has some Western League offers. Not caring to accept them, he contemplates going to Ray, Aris, where the athletes divide their time between playing baseball and working in the mines. They prefer baseball, but do not soorn work when the wages are not less than 34 a day.

San Francisco is gradually getting

San Francisco is gradually getting a stronger team in the field, and in a week should have almost a bona fide class AA organization on the job, Ducky Jones, the regular third sacker, got back into the game yesterday. He says that the ball looks "queer" to him at the plate. He should be going good in two or three days. Jack Coffey, the new shortstop, probably will get into the game today or tomorrow, while Oldham, the left-handed pitcher purchased from Detroit by Henry Berry, should be here in time to participate in next week's series against the Angels.

Salt Lake had registered three run in the eight, and with two down, had two more men on, when Quinlan drove one on a bee line for the right field fence. SUNDAY-APRIL 16TH

This is the handsomest and most home-like residence, considering the small outlay, ever pictured and presented in popular magazine shape. Any architect and most any master carpenter can constr it without other directions than are in the magazine. Nothing is overlooked the whole story is told by Jack Manley Rose and Grace Norton Rose, the famous architectural experts, who figure closely but skimp on nothing.

It has eight rooms, including two baths, a large living porch that can be glassed in, and six closets — without counting the cellar and attic rooms or the large butler's pantry.

The cover design, handsomely done in colors, shows the living room, seventeen by twenty-five, completely fumished. There are eleven guiding illustrations exclusive of the first and second floor plans drawn to scale.

Contractors and builders in va parts of America have estimated u the cost of this ideal $5250 home and contrary to many magazine-built ho the stated cost is conservative and is not misleading. Here are the figures: Carpentry, $2940, masonry $1060, plumbing $700, painting $400, electric work $150.

It's an issue not only to read now and study, but to lay aside for future reference. Also in this issue:

CINCINNATI, April 13.—Heavy hitting by Cincinnati, coupled with several costly errors by the visitors, allowed the locals to take the second game of the series from Chicago here today 8 to 3. Vaughn was hit hard and was forced to retire in the third inning, but Packard was little better, in so far as stopping the heavy batting of the Cincinnati team was concerned. SWITCHING.

Two of the prominent men who will switch events are Pa Gates and Ray Adkinson. These will fool nobody because they have appeared in these other events publicly before. Pa Gates will run the 440. In the old days before Gates turned bald-headed he use to make it a point to win the Pacific Coast conference every year. Last year he was right up behind Meridith, Sloman and Dismond in the 47s quarter at the exposition

Adkinson is going to drop out of the quarter altogether and devote all of his attention to the 880. In selecting this event, Adkinson proved himself a man of great courage. Against him will be Clarence Beebe and Mort Bonnett, two skinny individuals who have proven themselves by long years of running to be about the best imaginable in that race.

SOME RUNNER. Coach Stanton is a great admirer and booster of Adkinson and said that he thinks he can make the Hun run the haif in 1m. 57s. Dean Cromwell has been grooming Beebe. There are no two ways about it Beebe is in the best condition of the

GOING DOWN.

The Occidental relay team, which many figured would win that event, now look like a minus quantity. The Occidental Field is plowed up. The runners thought of the novel idea of running on the cement in front of the college. The result is that they have every kind of a leg allment from shin splints to charley-horses. Lupher is the worst and will not run in the 46. The only other Tiger who will perform besides these cripples is Webster in the high jump.

A red-hot card of boxing bouts has been arranged by Promoters Fred Featherstone for the L. A. High fight fans this noon. A feature of the programme will be the appearance of the Masked Marvel. Everyone has been guessing as to who this individual is. There was much excitament on the Hillitop setterday when a rumor began to circulate to the effect that Vice-Principal Oliver himself is the mysterious personage.

Members of the L. A. faculty are getting together to form a boxing league and win fame at fisticuffs as they have at tennis. To start things rolling Prof. Scherfee has challenged Messra. Goddard and Featherstone to a finish battle.

The World Waits.

J. Warren Kerrigan's mother is one of the most precious bits of "scenery" in the Kerrigan home. Everybody has beard about Jack's mother of his mean to take their work carefully.

A few men, Frisble, pole-vaulter among them, complained of being a trifle "stale." but there is no indication of a team slump. The California squad will enter the meet in the best possible condition, and will have no "out of condition" excuses to offer if defeated. The recognized prophets of intercollegiate events are closer to an agreement this year than they have been for many meets. Alumni of each university will win, but temper their predictions with "only a doping flend would, take a chance at what appears to be such a close meet it may break either way."

CAN'T TELL.

J. Warren Kerrigan's mother is one of the most preclous bits of "scenery" in the Kerrigan home. Everybody has heard about Jack's mother, of his devotion to her, and has seen pictures to prove it in the magasines. Now Rupert Julian, his director out at the Universal, is in receipt of a letter from a Kentucky woman, suggesting that Mrs. Kerrigan be featured with Jack in a picture. The young film here has promised to talk to his mother about it. CAN'T TELL.

A few nonpartisans think that Stanford will win by a small margin because of her apparent superiority in the track events. Murray, Wilson and Aupperle are expected to swing the meet toward Cardinal. Others, equally unbiased, point to California's strength in the field, and to the certainty of the Bears being able to land men in second and third places. Consistent performers in the pole, hammer and high jump are reckoned equals of Murray, et al., in ability to win points.

On paper it seems as though the meet will go to the rival which piles up the most little points. First places, except in the 100 and 220, look settled.

VERY CLOSE.

Herbert Rawlinson, leading man of the Worthington Universal Company. Director William Worthington and Jack Wells, the company's stage man-ager, were the guests of a number of the leading Chinese of the city at a lavish banquet a few nights ago in Chinatown. The Hop Sing Tong were the hosts.

Since 1893, when the first intercollegiate meet was held, California has won thirteen times, Stanford eight times, with one tie. Last year Stanford won by two inches when Sisson defeated Maker in the broad jump. The score was 63 to 60.

is all they ask.

RATHER OPTIMISTIC.

Coach Dad Moulton can't see anything but the Cardinal, but apparently he has more than his share of the optimism around the "farm." He is sure that his boys will win the relay, barring accidents, and Dad ought to know if anybody does, for he has the eleven winning relay teams at Stanford, and only one loser. His confidence is based on the strong conviction that his squad will take the lion's share of the breaks because it is composed of veteran track men who have beaten California once and "can do it again."

Trainer Doc Reynolds gives out the glad news that the sick have been made well and will enter the contest in perfect condition. This is of the wind and the sick list included such in perfect condition. This is of the lumest value to the Cardinals for the reason that the sick list included such stars as Wilson, Sisson, Caughey, Bihlman and Beal. Eddle Beal of Los Angeles seems to be back to form again, which should make him a prominent figure in the quarter-mile and relay, as he can cover the distance in close to 50 seconds at his begt.

The news that Bill Sisson is back in shape is almost the same as chalking up five points for the Cardinals in the broad jump, in spite of the close-competition Nichols and Maker of the Berkeley squad will give him. Caughey's strained heart is normal again, which makes the campus of the loss competition Nichols and Maker of the Berkeley squad will give him.

Joe Thomas Can Hardly Wait for Speedway Meet.

Hughle Hughes, the noted English ing driver, who has piloted the big weive-cylinder Sunbeam in several ing events in this section, yesterday on signed an agreement with Omar Toft to pilot the Omar car in Sunday's 150-mile motor derby. Toft has been undecided whether to have Teddy Tetziaff, who drove the Omar ile his fast speed crea'lon, but finally decided on the Britisher. UNDECIDED.

It seemed late yesterday afternoon that Teddy would not participate in the big derby scheduled to close the Ascot season. Cliff Durant lifted the gloom by offering his Chevrolet Special to Teddy. As Cliff has entered the car, if Tetzlaff does not nandle it, Durant will select his mechanician, Vic Wells, or Frank Good to be at its wheel. Durant will drive his Chevrolet Cyclone, the speedster with which he was recently presented by Barney Oldfield. the big derby scheduled to close th

Oldfield.

The entering of the Chevrolet Special and the Tahis before the entries closed increased the number of starters in Sunday's event to eleven—one more than the number desired by George R. Bentel, manager of the speedway. The head of the course would have rejected this entry, but Richard Kennerdell, chairman of the contest board of the American Automobile Association, yesterday wired Al G Waddell, its representative here, stating that if the cars were fitted for the contest and desired to enter they could not be turned down.

OTHER ENTRIES. OTHER ENTRIES.

The most sensational performance in the practice spin was pulled of by Joe Thomas on his first circuit of the speedway. He made the one-mile lap in 47 4-5 seconds. His time was regarded as remarkable, as it was his laitial attempt at the wheel of a racer on the track. He made other laps in very fast time, the next best being 50 4-5.

The faculty revoked their ruling of two years ago in a meeting today when they voted factorable, in the practice specials, and Eddie Pullete, Mercar drivers, who finished secand third, respectively, at Corona; Ed Waterman and Lou Gandy, pilots of Gandy Specials, the former of whom finished in the money at Corona; Noble Stutzman, with his Grant Special, and Bert Lloyd in an Oakland No. 6.

The most sensational performance in the practice spin was pulled off by Joe Thomas on his first circuit of the speedway. He made the one-mile lap in 47 4-5 seconds. His time was regarded as remarkable, as it was his linitial attempt at the wheel of a racer on the track. He made other laps in very fast time, the next best being 50 4-5.

VERY JUBILANT.

VERY JUBILANT.

VERY JUBILANT.

Joe was jubilant over his speedy cilps and the swiftness of the track. At the conclusion of practice, he said:

"The going was fine. My car is sure some swift little speeder on this track. I can hardly wait until tomorrow for practice, as I am sure that I will hit a mark almost as low as that made by Barney Oldfield in his Christie."

All of the drivers, who say the course is several seconds faster, were jubilant over the widening of the stretch and the rolling and smoothing of it. Manager Bervel announced the drivers' meeting will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in McKee's Cafe.

FIGHT FOR CHILDREN.

The habeas corpus proceedings in the Herbert case, involving the custody of Marloh Herbert, 8 years old, resulted in a long argument before Judge Dehy yesterday, a question of law cropping out. While it was being threshed out, the mother, now Mrs. Hermione Bradley, wife of State Senator Bradley of Idaho, who caused the writ to be issued, sat in the courtroom awaiting the decision of the court which would determine the fate of the child.

Mrs. Bradley wanted her daughter, and as the next best thing she desired her to be placed where she might visit her. Judge Dehy, after consulting the probation office, decided to send Marion to the Boys and Girls Society of Pasadena, as a temporary provision, until a home was selected.

MARRIAGE IILEGAL.

"I showed him my hand where his daughter-in-law had held me and dislocated two of my fingers, and he said it was good enough for me," said Mra. Mary A. Not having ordered the work, the City Council acquired no jurisdiction. The entire district was taxed a flat sum per quare foot, which was contrary to law, in that the law says property must be taxed according to the benefit. Of necessity, certain property was benefited more than others, which, according to the companies attorney, M. D. Andrews, makes the assessment void on its face. The city, represented by Deputy City Attorney James, holds that the assessment is valid.

If the boulevard companies win, all of the bonds, amounting to $300,000, will be invalidated.

Judge Dehy, after consulting the probation office, decided to send Marion office, decided to send Marion to the Boys' and Girls' Society of Pasadens, as a temporary provision, until a home was selected.

The contention was raised that when Mrs. Bradley obtained a divorce from Alvin A. Herbert in South Dakota in 1912, and Marion and Raiph, the children, were awarded to her they were not in the jurisdiction of the court. From now on the fight of father and mother for the custody of Marion promises to be even more interesting.

Mr. Herbert, through Attorney Crandall, will petition for the general guardianship of both children.

The Council yesterday voted to abandon its intention of paving the middle of Pacific avenue from Hamilton avenue to the west city boundary because it is expected that within the next two years the Pacific Electric will construct a double track through that portion of the street and will then be required to do the paving. Chairman Topham of the Public Works Committee asserted that in the event this road is constructed it will simply mean the property owners in the assessment district will have paid for the work which the railroad will have to take out and replace.

Protest was made to the Council yesterday by the Repair and Garage Men's Association that the police are discriminating against them by ordering them to keep gasoline tanks on wheels inside their buildings. It was explained that the ordinance against storing goods on the sidewalk was not intended to apply to the portable tanks and the protest was referred to the Public Safety Committee for suggestions as to a change in the ordinance. In the meantime the police will be instructed to refrain from ordering the tanks off the walks. Councilman Conwell pointed out that automobiles entering a garage to obtain gasoline are more of an obstruction than the tank at the curb.

Appeal Court Reverses Award of Dam Appeal Court Reverses Award of Damages to a Painter.

The State Industrial Accident Commission was reversed by the District Court of Appeals, yesterday, in the case of W. F. Heek, awarded $4.37$ a week compensation during disability suffered from an accident when in the employ of Frank Blood, at Huntington Park.

Heck had been employed to paint a house. The second day of his employment he met with an accident, disabiling him, and sought compensation under the State law.

The court held Heck's employment was a mere occasional and incidental contract, and did not entitle him to the benefits of the Compensation Act, which applies only in regular or certain business.

HELD TO ANSWER, Albert Hommel, well-to-do real estate dealer of Glendale, was held to answer to the Superior Court yesterday on a statutory charge. He is accused of having mistreated a 6-year-old girl. Justice Palmer fixed his bail at $3000, which was furnished.

The jolly old ghost that lurks along murderer's row" in the City Jail has nother triumph, resulting in a conession yesterday by Lorn Hadley, a legro, that he killed John McGovern, aged and wealthy recluse, April 3 at No. 927 Mateo street. The admissions identify Hadley as one of the most desperate and dangerous of criminals—murderer, despoiler, robber and a smothered cry and a gasping and gagging.

For the ghost is very intelligent, changing his procedure with each victim, submitting only the drama that will be most effective and have a bearing upon the particular case. Manuel Cabral, the man who killed his sweetheart, did not yield to it, but nearly all others have.

THE CRUCIAL TEST.

And negroes are particularly subject to the wiles of the spectral visitor. So Lorn Hadley was put in "murderers' row" because he was suspected of having killed Mr. McGovern. Early yesterday morning, when the jall was steeped in an inquisitive silence, the muttering of Lorn Hadley, discussing his secrets with himself, was heard.

discussing his secrets with himself, was heard.

There may have been some movement below. That is not to be recorded. Perhaps whispered directions were given; perhaps human footsteps might have been heard. There is no record of the fact. But a burly ghost, with a splendid Irish accent, because the victim, Mr. McGovern, spoke with a brogue, appeared in the corridor fronting "murderers' row."

There was a swish of rustling garment, like a restless shroud, a deep sigh, then a shrill yell of purest Hibernian infection. A gasp, a gurgle, and a groan with a half-muttered threat, and after that the soaring cry: "I am McGovern and you killed me; you killed McGovern! Tell! Tell!"

Bathe your face for several minutes with Resinol Soap and warm water, working the creamy lather into the skin gently with the finger-tips. Then wash off with more Resinol Soap and warm water, finishing with a dash of clear cold water to close the pores. Do this once or twice a day, and you will be astonished how quickly the healing, antiseptic Resinol medication soothes and cleansesthe pores, lessens the tendency to pimples, and leaves the complexion clear, fresh and velvety.
